The Herald prints official documents going to show that there is a complete rup ture between Maximillian and the Catholi Church. Among them is a letter from the Pope to Maximillian, in which he utters warnings and gives advice, all of which, however, are disregarded by the latter. The Arch Bishops and Bishops of Mexico, also protest against the acts of the new Emperor and appeal for a suspension o the measures against the church Their protest is also unheeded and the final decrees of religious tolerance and the confirmation of the reform laws of Juarez are pronounced.

The Tribune's James river correspo says: Refugees from Richmond report that great consternation is prevailing in that city. They say that the city has been for some time in course of evacuation, sending government materials, machinery, &c., to Lynchburg and Danville. Sheridan, they also say, has put a stop to this in a gree measure by destroying the Richmond and Lynchburg Canal—the main means of nmunication left.

The Danville road is nearly worn out with no material or men to spare to repair it. These men think Davis, Lee and other leaders have lost all hope, and already have their eyes on Mexico as an asylum. FCKSTH & HOUGH,

The famous white slave came lato our lines this morning and reported to General Logan. His name is James Lo Roach, of French descent by his father. His great grandmother was a pretty Indian girl, and reared by a Mr. Torrens, by whose son she had a daughter, who was sold to a Mr. Western, of Charleston, who had a daughter by her. The latter was the mother of our slave, and kept in carrilade, he had:

whiskers, and evidently without a partinle of African blood in his veins; yet he was the bondman of his kinsman.
